Patrons have the opportunity to pay down other people’s fines that are in need. If, for instance, you come in to pay a fine for yourself and you don’t want change back you can contribute to someone who has identified themselves as needing help with fines. Staff want to try this project for a three month trial basis at the downtown library location.

Mission and Purpose

The Chattanooga Public Library provides free and equal access to library materials and services and is guided by its Mission to be the community’s catalyst for lifelong learning.

The library supports the individual’s right to have access to ideas and information representing all points of view. The library board has adopted the American Library Association’s statements regarding the following: Library Bill of Rights, Freedom to Read, Freedom to View, and Access to Electronic Information, Services and Networks.

It is the policy of the Chattanooga Public Library not to forbid or impede the circulation of items from the library collection to any of its cardholders in good standing, whether resident or non-resident, based upon that cardholder’s race, creed, national origin, age, place of residence, or other personal criteria. While the Library supports these principles, in the case of minors (17 and under), we are also obligated to comply with Tennessee Code 39-17-911; Sale, loan or exhibition of material to minors.

Access to Library Materials by Minors

It is the policy of the Chattanooga Public Library that parents or guardians, not the library staff, are responsible for monitoring and approving the selection of materials made by their children. It is the parents or guardians—and only these—who may restrict their children—and only their children—from access to library materials and services. Parents or guardians who wish to block their children from borrowing items from the young adult or adult collections should request for library staff issue a card limited to taking out materials with a juvenile designation. The library staff cannot and do not act in loco parentis.

Library customers may use photo ID to check out materials, and may obtain a guest pass to use the computer if they do not have their library card. The receipt received at checkout serves as the official notice of the due date for an item or items, and the customer is responsible for knowing the actual return date.

Check In Policy

Items may be returned to any Chattanooga library location in any designated book return. All items are checked for damage and for missing pieces before they are checked in and removed from a customer’s account. A customer whose items are checked in after the due date will be assessed late fees by the library’s automation system.

Items Returned Incomplete

If a customer returns an item that is lacking one or more of its components, the customer is responsible for returning the missing component(s). The library will contact the customer. The item will not be removed from the customer’s account (i.e. will not be checked-in) until the missing component(s) is/are returned. In the event the customer does not return the missing component(s) the item will be considered “lost” and the customer will be assessed the appropriate replacement and processing fees.
Extended Use Fees

Extended Use Fees are assessed if an item is not returned by the close of business on the due date. The fee is $0.10 per item, per day.

Renewal Policy

Library materials may be renewed through the Online Public Access Catalog or by staff. Items may be renewed up to 99 times, but items with holds will not be renewed.

Lost Materials

If a customer loses an item, the customer is responsible for the replacement cost and processing fee for that item (i.e., the list price of the item at the time it was added to the collection according to the item record. In the event that no amount is indicated in the item record, then the replacement cost will be the amount the item is listed for sale as a new item). The customer cannot replace or substitute the lost item with another item. In the event a lost item that has been paid for is found and is returned to the library, the customer will receive a refund according to the City of Chattanooga procedures. The refund amount is the amount paid for the item less the overdue charges (due date to paid date).

At three hundred sixty-five (365) days overdue, the customer will no longer be eligible to receive a refund for the return of lost materials, nor will the customer be eligible for any waiver of any account fees or fines attached to the overdue item(s). The customer will be responsible for the replacement and processing fees associated with the lost item(s).

Overdue Materials

Materials checked out and not returned forty-five (45) days after the due date are considered “lost.” The customer is billed for the replacement costs of the materials.

Items returned within 365 days from their original due date will not incur the replacement cost. Overdue fines for these items will be capped at $10.00 per item.

Damaged Materials

Items damaged beyond normal wear and tear, including purposefully defacing or destroying library material, is the responsibility of the customer. Fees for damaged materials will be the replacement cost and processing fees for the material.

If the customer has lost or permanently damaged a DVD or Music CD but still has the case, the customer is responsible for the entire amount of the item. The price of the case will not be subtracted from the replacement cost.

Claims Returned or Claims Never Had

When a library customer claims that an item (owned by The Chattanooga Public Library) still charged out to him/her has been returned to the library, or that he/she never borrowed that item in the first place, the customer may request that the library mark the item as “Claim Returned” or “Claim Never Had” (both hereinafter referred to as “Claimed”). The library will then search and bill according to its Claimed Returned Procedures.

Holds
Customers may place up to 30 hold requests on circulating items. 10 of these holds may be DVDs and 10 may be CDs. Items are held for seven (7) days. If the item is not picked up within the time allotted, the hold is cancelled and the item is returned to circulation or fills the next hold in the queue.

In order to check out the hold item, the customer must present the library card on which the hold request was made or be a designated cardholder associated with the customer who originally placed the hold. No pickups will be allowed without the originating card or a designated customer association. If a customer presents the card that originated the hold or the customer has an associated library account, check-out will be allowed even if the cardholder is not present at the time of pick-up. No other account information will be shared without proper identification or presenting the library card.

Interlibrary Loan Titles

The Chattanooga Public Library participates in the ALA-sponsored Interlibrary Loan program. The Chattanooga Public Library will request from another library materials that are not available to its customers locally. This includes print as well as non-print materials, such as DVDs, audiobooks, and microfilm. Only print items will be loaned to participating libraries. In order to request a title through this service, the customer’s full-access account must be active and in good standing. Customer may have no more than five (5) Interlibrary Loan titles on their account at the same time.

The library honors any restrictions and/or check out periods the lending library may place on the material. The library customer is responsible for all materials borrowed from another library at the customer’s request. The library customer will pay any charges assessed by the lending library. Interlibrary Loan items checked out by a customer are subject to the same late fees as a Chattanooga-owned title. In order to check out the item, the customer must present the library card on which the interlibrary loan request was placed. Items are held for seven (7) days. If the item is not picked up within the time allotted, the loan request is canceled and returned to the lending library. If a customer presents the card that originated the request, check-out will be allowed even if the cardholder is not present at the time of pickup. No pickups will be allowed without the originating card.

Courtesy Notices

Courtesy Notices are sent to customers who choose email as their primary notification option. For all checked-out items, a courtesy notice is sent three (3) days in advance of the due date. Failure to receive a courtesy notice does not exempt the customer from any overdue charges.

Overdue Materials and Outstanding Fines and Fees
As a courtesy, the Chattanooga Public Library notifies customers whenever they have overdue materials or owe fines or fees of $25.00 or more. Library customers who have unpaid fees over $5.00 will not be able to check out materials.

At one (1) day overdue, or when the patron reaches the $25.00 fine threshold, a notice is sent via email, text-messaging or through the library’s Telephone Notification System.

At five (5) days overdue, or when the patron reaches the $25.00 fine threshold, a second notice is sent via email, text-messaging or through the library’s Telephone Notification System.
At twenty-eight (28) days overdue, or when the patron reaches the $25.00 fine threshold, a third notice is sent via email, text-messaging or through the library’s Telephone Notification System.

At forty-five (45) days overdue, or when the patron reaches the $25.00 fine threshold, the customer will receive a billing statement via the U.S. Postal Service that reflects the replacement and processing cost for each item, or the fines and fees owed.

At sixty (60) days from the due date of the materials, or when the patron reaches the $25.00 fine threshold, if a customer does not resolve their outstanding account, and they are in excess of $25.00, the account is referred to a collection agency. A collection fee of $15.00 is charged to the customer’s account at this time.

At three hundred sixty-five days (365) overdue, the customer will no longer be able to receive a refund for the return of lost materials. The customer will be responsible for the replacement and processing fees associated with the lost item(s).

Not receiving an overdue notification does not exempt the customer from paying outstanding fees.
