Board Statement Regarding Library Cards for Non-City Residents

Chattanooga Public Library is funded by the City of Chattanooga taxpayers. People who live within the city limits of Chattanooga, own property or a business within the city limits of Chattanooga, or who work for the City of Chattanooga receive their library cards at no cost. The Library also provides free library cards to all currently enrolled Hamilton County Public School students regardless of where they reside.

Non-city residents who do not own a business or property within the city, work for the city or attend a Hamilton County Public school can purchase a full access library card for $50 per year. Non-residents may also elect to complete 20 hours of volunteer work annually at any Library location and then receive their card for free, for one year.

Hamilton County residents who question the non-resident charge should speak with their Hamilton County Commissioner.
